

SIP THE TASTIEST COCKTAILS AT:

#1 “The Negroni” at Dante

“The cocktail of the moment! In the West Village, Dante features every possible combination of the bitter drink one can imagine, plus great Italian cuisine. Try the Negroni Bianco!”

HONORABLE MENTIONS

“The Whiskey Business at Dear Irving, a former speakeasy.”

“Any drink at The Polynesian, a rooftop tiki bar (They also serve great food).”

“Attaboy serves creative cocktails built from what you like.”

“The Aviary NYC and The Office NYC. These two new spots, by renowned chef Grant Achatz, offer over-the-top, unique cocktails. Request a drink reminiscent of a place or emotion, and they’ll craft a beverage from a host of ingredients then serve it in a vessel that is all their own.”

“Rye Manhattan at Peppi’s Cellar (at Nolita). Let Fish make you the best Rye Manhattan on the planet.”

“Gin Gin Mule at Pegu Club, the recommended starter drink at this upscale, SOHO cocktail institution, hailed as the epicenter of mixology.”

“Besos Caliente at Employees Only, a West Village landmark for the cocktail and great American cuisine. They’ve won numerous awards for their cocktail program. This one will warm your palate.”

“Irish Coffee with a Scotch Egg at Dead Rabbit. On the Seaport waterfront, have a drink in an Irish pub/cocktail lounge that has won more awards than most. Dead Rabbit has an impressive whiskey menu.”

“Lantern’s Keep, a specialty cocktail bar that offers drinks inspired by the prohibition era.”
