

WHERE TO GO AT 2 A.M.:

#1 The Box

“The shows go usually until sunrise and gets naughtier as the night goes on.”

“A burlesque show with more than you bargained for.”

“For fun and craziness.”

“Unique, great crowd. An NYC staple.”

“Hottest party in NYC.”

“This place is an absolute after-hour spot. The show will leave you speechless. New York is all about being different, and this place will definitely surprise you.”

HONORABLE MENTIONS

“L’Express. On Park Avenue South in Gramercy Park, classic French bistro fare in a Parisian Cafe setting. It’s buzzy with a great late-night vibe, and the steak frites are not to be missed.”

“Empanada Mama. Open 24-hours. Many delicious Empanadas and great Sangria.”

“Lavo Niteclub. A young, vibrant scene with electronic and pop music.”

“Peculier Pub. A casual pub with in the West Village with an awesome selection of brews from all over the world. Pay as you go. Cash only.”

“The 18th Room. A lesser-known speakeasy with amazing cocktails and a great atmosphere.

“Haswell Green for sing-along live music. Yell out your request.”

“Terra Blues. Live blues music on Fridays and Saturdays. A Greenwich Village gem.”

“Sarge’s Delicatessen in Murray Hill. Expansive deli menu including some of the best corn beef in the city. Everything is delicious and fresh!”

“Nurse Bettie on the Lower East Side. Great music, killer cocktails and maybe a burlesque show.”

“Bembe in Williamsburg, for live drummers and DJs spinning Brazilian beats and World music.”

“Odessa in Alphabet City, for pirogies, disco fries and chocolate chip pancakes.”

“Sing Sing. A popular karaoke bar with private rooms.”

“Insomnia Cookies. Warm cookies delivered wherever you are for instant pleasure.”

“Hide-Chan Ramen on East 52nd Street. Nothing beats the cold-weather blues like some fresh, hot ramen.”

“Crimson Tide in the Lipstick Building. Finish off with a highly crafted cocktail at this Michelin-starred establishment.”